

Ethics, Politics, and Religion - Kantian Perspectives

PROGRAM

10:00 Welcome: Anna Tomaszewska

Session 1 (chair: Hasse Härmäläinen, IS)

10:15 Catherine Wilson (York): Kant's Dualism of Nature and Reason and Its Implications for the Problem of Warfare

10:45 Howard Williams (Cardiff): Kantian Reflections on the Conflict in Ukraine

11:15 Coffee break

Session 2 (chair: Wojciech Kozyra, Warsaw)

11:30 Justyna Miklaszewska (Jagiellonian): The Idea of Freedom in the Philosophy of Kant and Rawls

12:00 Ansgar Lyssy (Leipzig): *Speaking for Oneself and Exercising Judgment.
Two Aspects of the Kantian Enlightenment*

12:30 Discussion

13:00 - 15:30 Lunch break

Session 3 (chair: Damian Barnat, AWF Kraków)

15:30 Anna Szyrwińska-Hörig (Vechta): Secularization of Eschatology and the Origin of Enlightenment Optimism. Kant and Spener on How the Humankind Should Prepare for the Future

16:00 Anna Tomaszewska (Jagiellonian): Kant – an Enlightened Schwärmer?

16:30 Jakub Szczepański (Jagiellonian): The Idea of the Sublime from the Political Point of View

17:00 Discussion

17:30 Closing remarks: The Organizers

18:30 Dinner at “Pod Aniołami”

Between Secularization and Reform

Religious Rationalism in the Late 17th Century and in the Enlightenment

NATIONAL SCIENCE CENTRE
POLAND

KANTIAN
REVIEW

filozofuj!